Dear Ms. Sark,

I've noted your RFPs, but did you mean to send me interrogatories (especially these ones)? Sending interrogatories without leave of the court before the 26(f) meeting is improper, and these questions are mostly requesting things that will be in my initial disclosures or for things wholly inappropriate, especially given my claims. Should I disregard these, or is there any reason why I shouldn't file a motion for sanctions? I'm considering doing exactly that. Were you unaware that you're out of bounds?

Thank you,
Jose M. DeCasto

Mr. DeCastro,

I was mistaken in my belief that a rule 26(f) report was completed in this case. After reviewing the docket, I realize that it has not been completed. Please disregard the first set of written discovery that I've sent. I will send it to you once more when the rule 26(f) report is filed.

- Cassandra
